NOTHING HEALS LIKE MUSIC and how true this statement is, considering that there are new avenues opening up in the world of medicine, it's only right to think of and thank the DOCTORS AROUND US, on this DOCTOR'S DAY!!

Do we all know that there is so much happening in the field of medicine using MUSIC AS A MEDIUM??? There are songs for palliative care, songs and ragas that help insomniacs get some much needed sleep, music to heal the soul and music for helping people handle stress.

Do you know that your body's immunity levels increase in constant exposure to music? Want to increase your memory levels? Music has an answer and finally, even reduction of pain and anxiety.

Whether we need to get cured of our illnesses or stay Hale and healthy, we need the service of doctors around us... and to think that they go to the world of music to heal themselves is the most interesting thing for the music industry itself. A song for every reason, a music for every mood and a cure for every possible illness-that's how much of a role music and medicos plays in our lives... So, let's take a moment to wish all the doctors around us a HAPPY, MUSICAL DOCTOR'S DAY and many more MUSICAL years ahead!
